

FOOD FACT LUNCHBOX NOTES

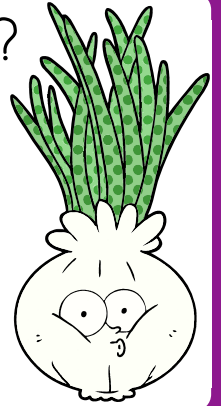

Did you know?

Cherries are a member of the rose family

Did you know?

If you cut an onion you might cry because they release a gas that stings your eyes!

Which contains more sugar - lemons or strawberries?

A: Lemons!

Which fruits float when placed in water?

A: Apples, Bananas, and Watermelons

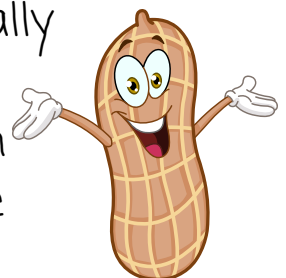

Did you know?

3000 year old honey that was found in an Egyptian tomb is STILL edible!

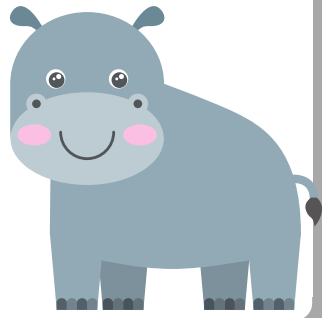

Did you know?

Peanuts aren't really nuts, they are legumes! (which means they are beans)

Did you know?

The first known recipe for soup used hippo meat!

Did you know?

Another name for an avocado is alligator-pear because of its alligator-like skin.

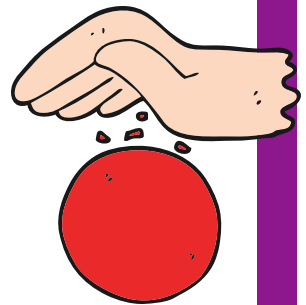

Did you know?

The largest tomato ever weighed 7 pounds 12 ounces - that's as much as a baby!

Did you know?

When cranberries are ripe they bounce like a rubber ball

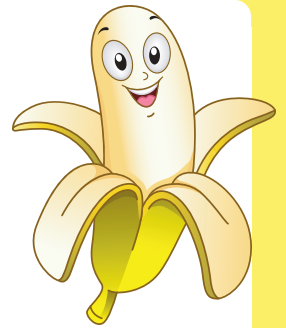

What was the first vegetable to be successfully grown in space?

A: Potatoes

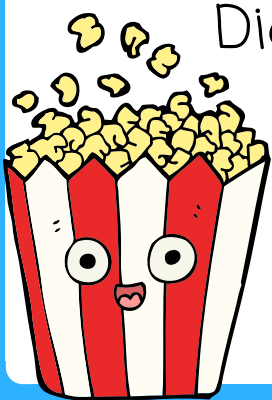

How far does a banana typically travel before being eaten?
1000, 3000, or 4000 miles?

A: 4000 miles

Did you know?

Popcorn has existed for about 6000 years.

Did you know?

The reason why peppers taste hot is because of a chemical that tricks your mouth into thinking it is actually being burned.

